

MILITARY WOMEN IN NEED INAUGURAL WARRIOR AWARDS DINNER
MAY 7, 2015

LA COMMISSIONER JACLYN TILLEY HILL, PRODUCER AMY ZIERING AND LT. COMMANDER BOYDEN ROHNER
TO BE HONORED DURING EVENINGS FESTIVITIES

Los Angeles, CA (April 27, 2015) – Military Women In Need (MWIN), a 94 year-old non-profit organization located in West Los Angeles, will host its inaugural Warrior Awards dinner on May 7, 2015 at 5:30 PM to be held at Justice Aviation in the Santa Monica Airport. The jam-packed evening will feature a walk-around dinner by acclaimed Executive Chef Claud Beltran, a wine and beer tasting, a fly-over by the Condor Squadron and limited drawing. Entertainment will be provided by Blue Note Entertainment and New Directions Veterans Choir, the award winning a cappella group who came to fame on America's Got Talent.

The esteemed honorees for the evening that will be making remarks include Amy Ziering, Academy Award nominated producer of The Invisible War and two-time Emmy winner. Ms. Ziering will be receiving the Warrior Award for Excellence in Media. Boyden E. Rohner, Lt. Commander USNR, Department of Homeland Security will be receiving the Warrior Award for Excellence in Leadership. Jaclyn Tilley Hill, Chair Emeritus, Los Angeles County Quality and Productivity Commission is receiving The Pat DeMond Award. Commissioner Hill is receiving the Award for her long time commitment to Military Women In Need and women veterans.

MWIN continues to remain the only organization in Southern California whose mission is solely dedicated to bridging the gaps by providing financial assistance to women veterans. Today, MWIN's primary purpose is the prevention of homelessness among female veterans, survivors of veterans and their children.

Based in Van Nuys, the Condor Squadron Officer's and Airmen's Association is a unique non-profit organization founded in 1965 by a group of WWII fighter pilots, preserving a piece of aviation history. They fly WWII, North American AT-6 airplanes in formation over parades, memorial services and events commemorating veterans.

The event is open to the public and tickets can be purchased through the MWIN website, www.militarywomeninneed.org. Media is invited to attend and should contact the number below. Sponsorships and single tickets are still available. For further information and sponsorships, contact Nina Andro, nina.acclaim@gmail.com and 310.458.5905.

###